Level 1

Le lion était le roi de la jungle.

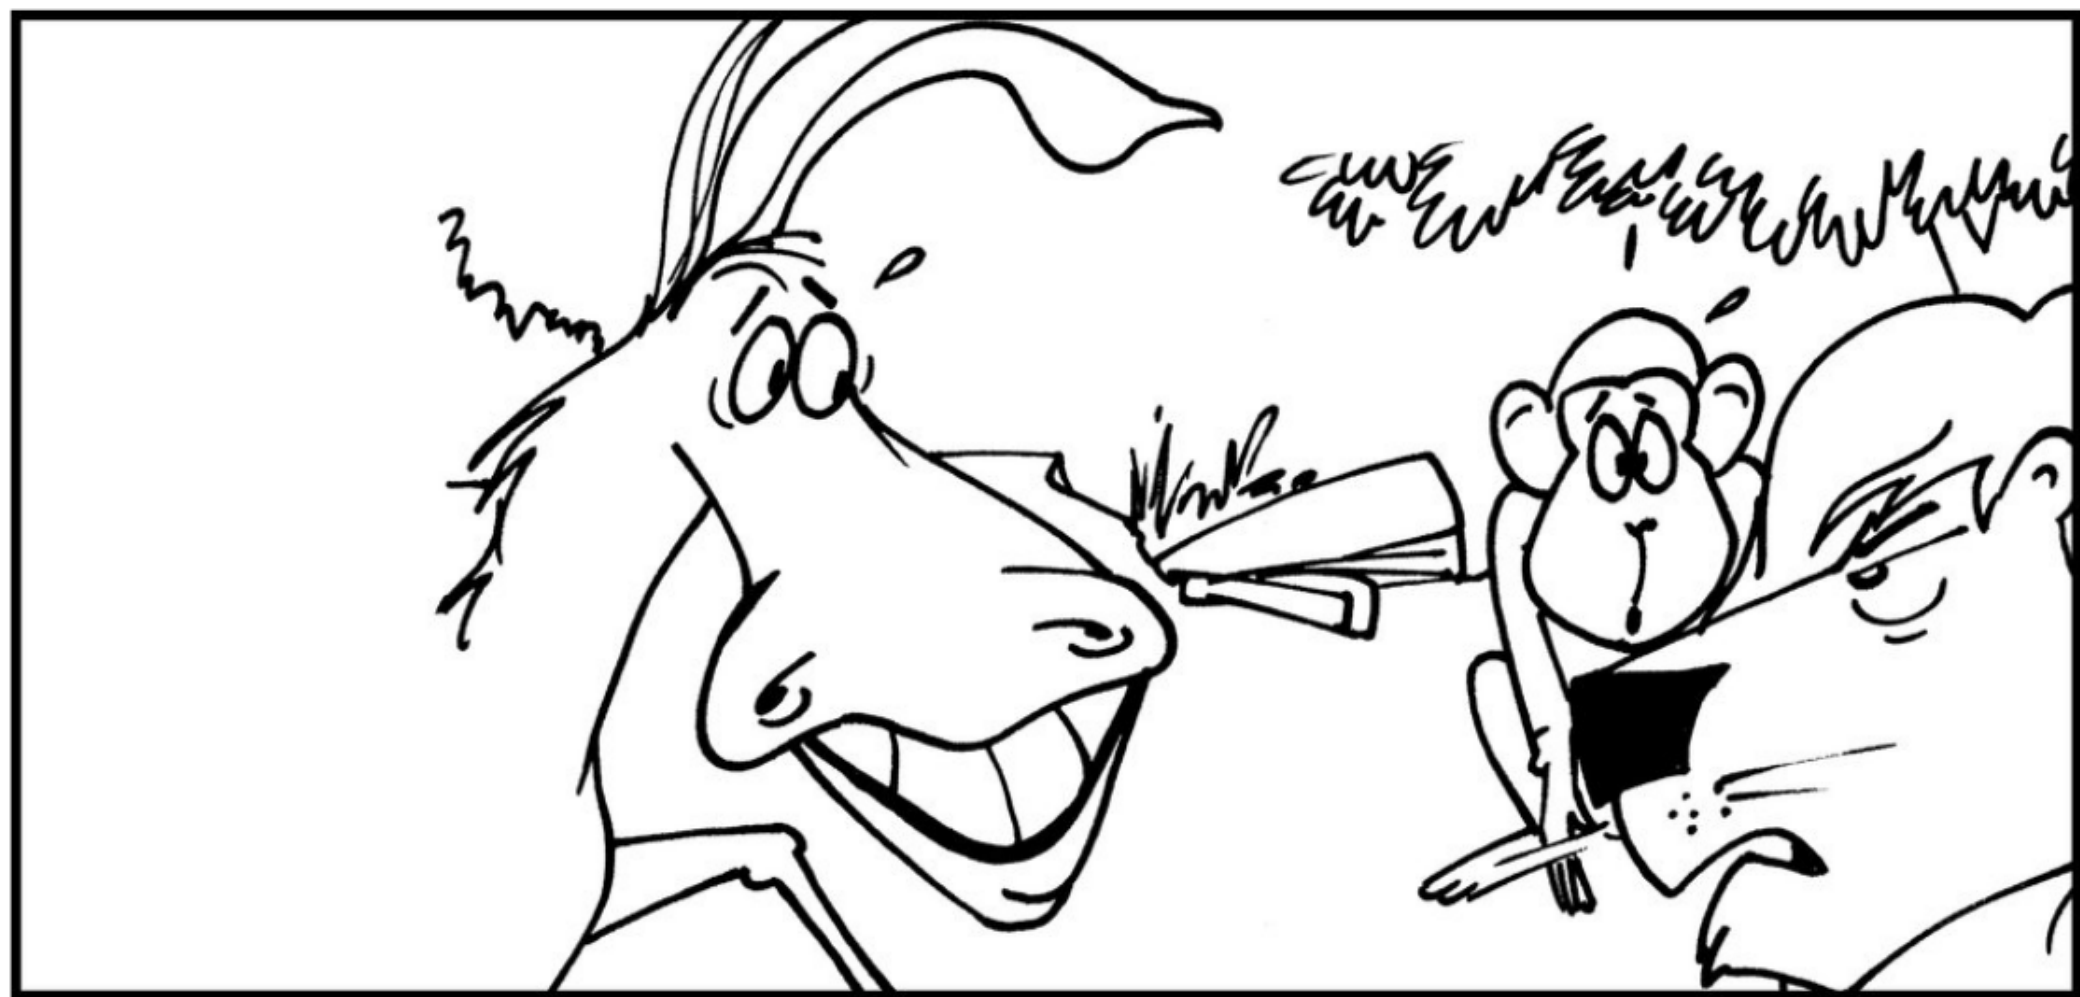

Tout le monde tremblait de peur et d'effroi lorsqu'il rugissait.

Il souffrait d'une terrible rage de dents depuis deux jours.

— Maharaj, il faut vous faire arracher cette dent, suggéra le singe, qui était le médecin de la jungle.

— D'accord, répondit le lion.

Mais qui oserait arracher une dent à un lion ? Tous les animaux avaient très peur de lui.

— Maharaj, je vais vous décocher une ruade en plein dans la mâchoire, proposa bêtement l'âne. Cela fera tomber votre dent.

— Quoi ? Tu oserais frapper le roi ? rugit le lion enragé.

L'âne prit ses jambes à son cou et décampa, la queue entre les jambes.

Au bout de deux jours, la douleur était devenue insupportable.

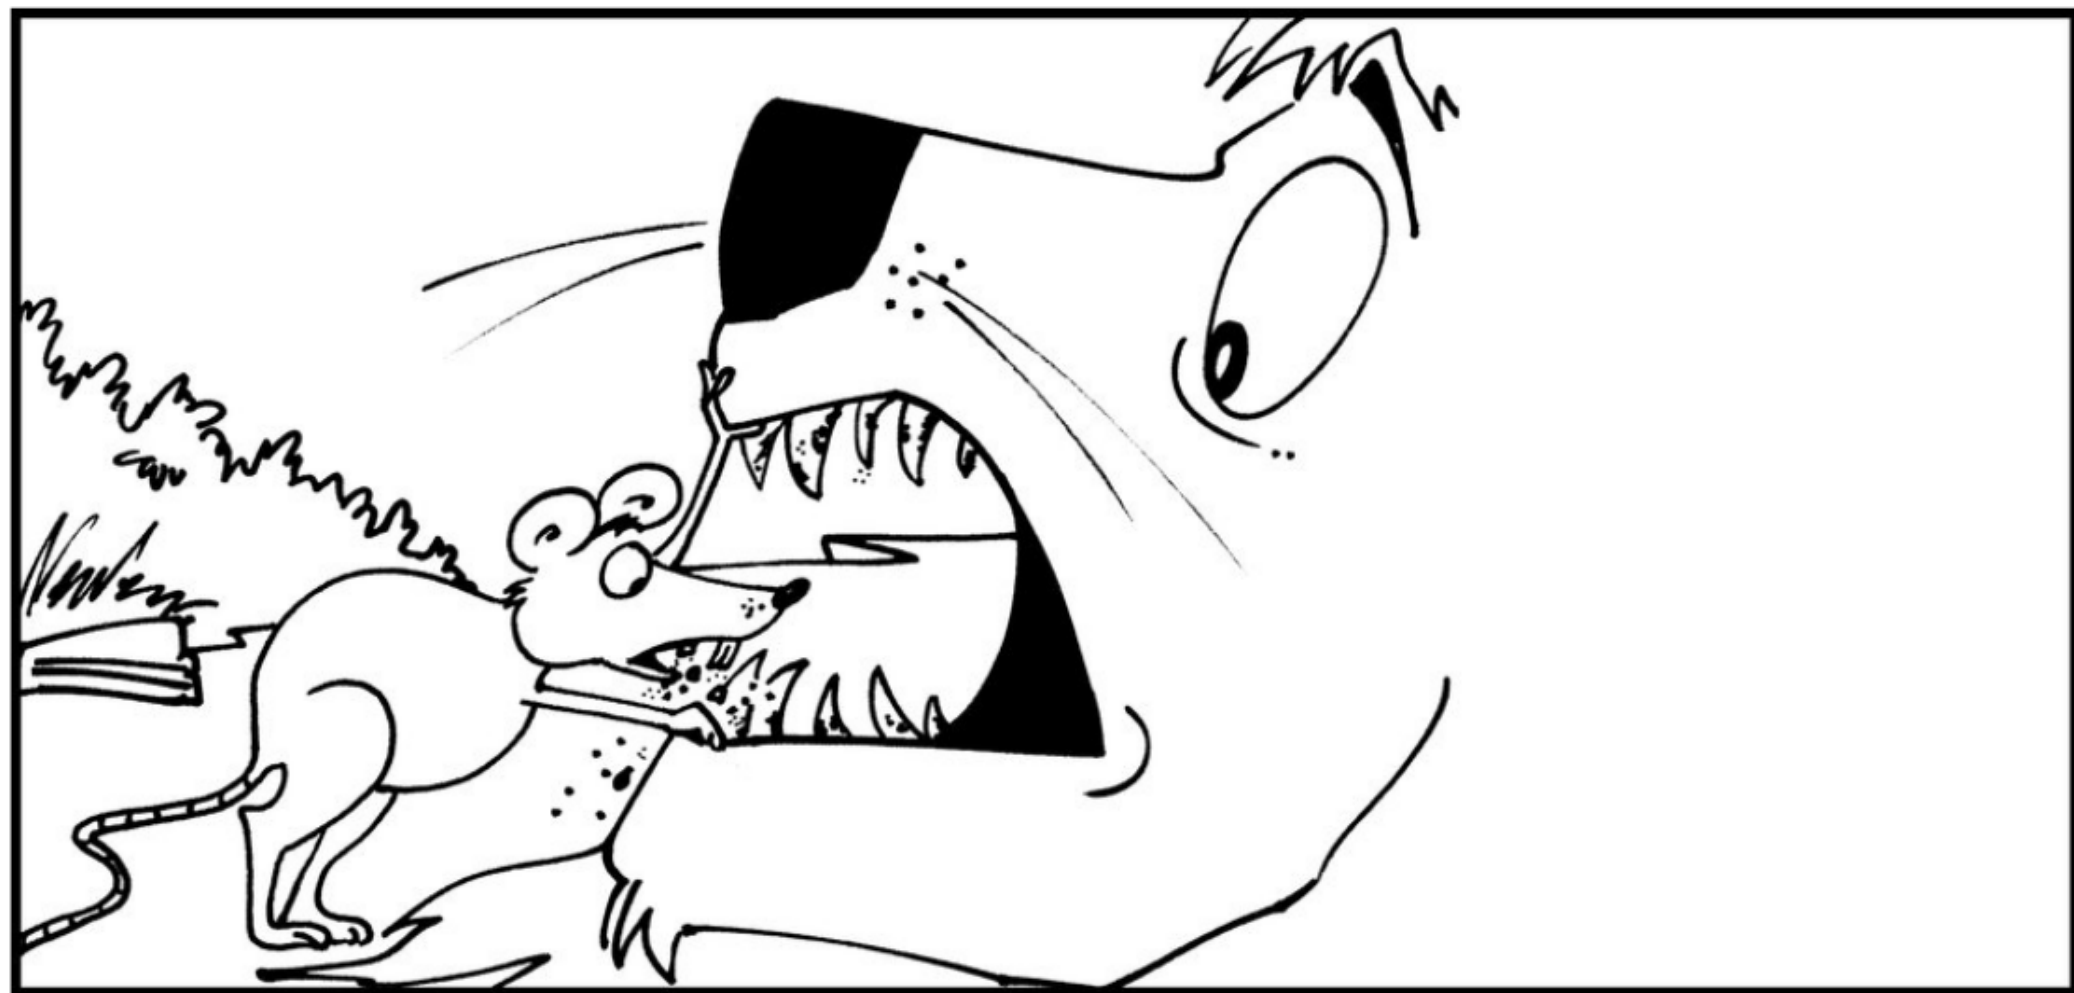

— Puis-je jeter un œil ? demanda une souris un soir, tandis que le lion était seul.

— Oui, bien sûr, répondit le lion en ouvrant sa gueule en grand.

L'éléphant, le guépard, l'ours et le cerf étaient très inquiets.

Qui oserait glisser sa patte dans la gueule d'un lion ?

— Oh, mais il y a plein de saletés coincées entre vos dents, indiqua la souris en examinant l'intérieur de la gueule.

Elle entreprit alors de nettoyer les dents du lion avec ses petites dents aiguës.

Le lion se sentit tout de suite beaucoup mieux.

— Maharaj, il faut vous laver les dents tous les jours, ordonna la petite souris intelligente, sinon, elles vont pourrir.

— Oui, vous avez raison, répondit le lion. Mais, par pitié, ne dites pas aux autres animaux que je ne me lave pas les dents, sinon, ils vont penser que leur roi est crado.

— D'accord, répondit la souris en éclatant de rire.

Le lion éclata de rire aussi.
